Currency Surcharge

Dear EuroShowers Customer

As we all know the value of the British Pound has fallen sharply against most currencies since the recent 'BREXIT' vote.

Nobody can be certain which way this will go in the near future.

EuroShowers do not want to make any long term decisions with our pricing structure, but as our business is based around the value of the GBP against the USD we cannot absorb the immediate increase in the cost of our products.

Therefore we have taken the decision that we must introduce a 'currency surcharge' from Monday 1st August.

The surcharge must be applied to all orders including standard trade prices, special terms and bulk buying.

The surcharge needs to be 5% for August, but please note we will adjust this rate monthly depending on the movements in the currency market.

The surcharge will appear on your order confirmation and invoice as a separate line. To avoid any future price queries we will require you to confirm that you accept the surcharge. Orders cannot be despatched unless we receive your confirmation.

I am very sorry that we have to take this action, as it is more work for all concerned, but please be assured we will remove it as soon as we possibly can.

Yours faithfully
